

BREAK THE SILENCE:

1 in 12 young people hear voices. Let's talk about it.

FOR YOUNG PEOPLE WHO HEAR VOICES, THEIR FAMILIES & SUPPORTERS

MONTGOMERY COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF BEHAVIOURAL HEALTH/DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

DID YOU KNOW?

- Over 1 in 12 young people hear voices or see things that other people don't.
- These voices can be helpful or funny for some, but sometimes they can be scary, threatening or confusing.
- Famous people who've talked about hearing voices include: Lady Gaga, John Frusciante (ex Red Hot Chili Peppers guitarist) and Gandhi.
- People can, and do, recover and learn to deal with difficult voices or visions.

COME ALONG AND ...

- Meet other young people who hear voices or see visions.
- Find out how people can learn to cope with difficult voices and visions, and hear from people who have recovered.
- Challenge the stigma around voices and visions - break the taboo!
- Take part in creative activities - sometimes its easier than talking.
- Find out about the Voice Collective project in the UK and tell us what extra support is needed over here.

WHAT ABOUT PARENTS & OTHER SUPPORTERS?

Parents, family members, friends & youth workers are welcome at this event. Come along and you'll have the chance to share your experiences, gain support and pick up some new tips or ideas.

SATURDAY MAY 3

10.00 - 1.00PM

@ NORTH PENN COMMUNITY FOUNDATION, COLMAR

2506 North Broad Street, Suite 206, Colmar, PA 18915

WITH: RAI WADDINGHAM & BERTA BRITZ

Rachel (Rai) Waddingham manages an innovative project supporting young people who hear voices / see visions, and their families (Mind in Camden's Voice Collective - www.voicecollective.co.uk). This includes developing peer support groups, individual support, online support & creative workshops.

Rai has personal experience of hearing voices and seeing visions since her youth, but now has found ways of dealing with them. See: www.behindthelabel.co.uk
